1. The wooden plank surfaces of pontoon bridges built near the Han River outside Seoul have been destroyed by UN bombing. The bridges were made of empty oil drums with planks placed above, permitting truck passage.
2. There are some Chinese Communist Army personnel (unit or type unidentified) in Seoul who never associate or converse with the Seoul residents.
3. The North Korean government informed Seoul residents that North Korean forces occupied Taegu on 24 July. Government reports in Seoul in late August stated that North Korean spearheads were fighting a street battle with ROK and UN forces in Pusan.
